

Astrology 101-A

Astrology 101-B

There are now two sections of Astrology 101. Astrology 101-A covers Signs, Decanates and Houses and Astrology 101-B, Planets and Aspects.

A astrology 101-A identifies Element, Quality, Polarity and Degree of Emanation of the Signs. It examines the influences of the Decanates and explores relationships between the Signs in their natural Houses and its impact in the Houses of an individual Horoscope. It describes the strength or volume of the Houses, the weight and authority of Ascendent and Midheaven, apart from and as member of the first and tenth Houses, respectively. The Houses of the Horoscope addressed by volume, quadrant and hemisphere, Society and Trinity.

A astrology 101-B emphasizes the importance of the Planets as the vehicles which carry the Signs. A spotlight highlights action occurring on stage and uses different filters to change color and mood. The Planets are the spotlight expressed through the filters of the Signs. Astrology 101-B reinforces as it describes Planet/Sign rulership and relationship, and Essential Dignities. Aspect defined, their corresponding orbs and relationships produced by multiple Planets Aspects to each other.

Both Astrology 101-A and Astrology 101-B are each 8 weeks in duration. Participants must have taken Astrology 101-A or demonstrate knowledge of Signs and Houses in order to enroll in Astrology 101-B. Participants satisfactorily complete a survey prior to enrollment to fulfill this requirement.
