

I SEE

A Prayer of Vision and Alignment

Oh, Thou Eternal Spirit, in Whom I live, move, breathe, and have my being,
open the eyes of my heart to the sacred now.

Illuminate my vision,
that I may see today's experiences not as obstacles,
but as divine invitations to grow and serve.

Align my sight with Thy wisdom, so that I may discern my true role in this unfolding creation—
to recognize the light within myself and in all beings.

Grant me clarity to behold the path before me,
courage to walk it with faith, and gratitude to honor each step as holy ground.

Let my seeing be not through fear,
but through love—
seeing beauty where others see brokenness,
seeing purpose where others see
chance,
seeing Thee in all that is.

For in Thee, I see all things made whole.
And through Thee, I remember who I am.

So, Shall It Be.
