Author of the Brotherhood of Light Lessons C. C. Zain is the pen name used by Elbert Benjamine, the noted astrologer, naturalist and occultist, for those writings done under the aegis of The Brotherhood of Light during the years 1914 - 1934. This body of knowledge, referred to interchangeably as The Brotherhood of Light Lessons or The Religion of the Stars, was envisioned by Zain to be a world religion of the future.

The mission of Zain's writing is centered on a nine-point plan to insure the citizens of the world Freedom from Want, Freedom from Fear, Freedom of Expression, and Freedom of Religion. To obtain these freedoms he encourages the individual to become familiar with the Facts of Astrology, the Facts of Extra-Sensory Perception, the Facts of Induced Emotion and the Facts of Directed Thinking. The moral code is "Contribute Your Utmost to Universal Welfare." Within the first half of the 20th century B. of L. teachings were distributed around the world. Like the writings of Bailey, Blavatsky, Steiner, and Heindl, the works of C. C. Zain have impacted the lives of thousands of students of Western Occultism.

Elbert Benjamine, was born Benjamin P. Williams in the small town of Adel, Iowa, December 12, 1882. His family remembered his birth because it was the year a comet flashed across the sky. His father was a doctor and a deacon in the Disciples of Christ Church. His interests in occultism and astrology were frowned upon in his community. He changed his name to Elbert Benjamine upon moving to Los Angeles in order to protect his family.

Benjamine's desire was to be a naturalist. As a boy he spent every free hour in the woods observing the habits of wild things, an enthusiasm that would continue his entire life. He later held the position of president of the Southern California Nature Club for 25 years and was responsible for the establishment of a bird sanctuary in Los Angeles. Benjamine contacted the Brotherhood of Light in the spring of 1909 and was commissioned to place the teachings in writing. In his day Elbert Benjamine was a unique leader. He opposed hero worship and cult-like behavior. He discouraged members from taking any of his writings on blind belief. Instead he encouraged them to subject them to rigorous testing of their own. Church of Light members are given freedom of conscience and encouraged to study as many things about religion, science and the mysteries as they can and then draw their own conclusions.

This catalog offers C. C. Zain's legacy in books.

OUR MISSION:

To promote Universal Welfare and the exaltation of humankind, through the teaching and practices of the Religion of the Stars as outlined in the writings of C.C. Zain.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES:

A loving Cosmic Intelligence, of which we are all a part, whose infinite goodness guides us through undeviating natural law.

A Divine Plan, manifests through progressive evolution, in which each soul has a unique and important role.

A soul is completely moral when, to the maximum extent of its abilities, it adheres to the universal moral code: Contribute Your Utmost to Universal Welfare.

The realization of the soul's Mission, and the attainment of Self-Conscious Immortality, is the goal toward which each soul moves.

Love is the way to life. Unselfish Love alone makes immortality possible.

Through the proper exercise of one's mentality, using Directed Thinking and Induced Emotion, it is possible to control one's own life and destiny, both here and hereafter.

Astrology is the Golden Key that unlocks the door to understanding the Soul's true character and potential.

The safe development of extrasensory perception (Extension of Consciousness) is the best tool for realizing each individual's mission in the Divine Plan and for verifying the survival of the soul after death of the physical body.

Religion is the sister of Science, and it evolves by incorporating new information as it is discovered and verified.

OUR VISION FOR THE 21ST CENTURY:

We are a powerful force for good and for spiritual enlightenment, and expand the reach and experience of our members because:

We provide reliable and verifiable information regarding the nature of the soul and its relationship to Deity and other life forms;

We seek out reliable and verifiable information regarding life on higher planes of existence, especially in regard to the transition we call death, and the nature of the next life;

We develop increasingly advanced tools and training in astrology, extrasensory perception, directed thinking and induced emotion, toward the end of maximizing each person's happiness, usefulness and spirituality;

We promote the importance of the four essential freedoms: Freedom from Want, Freedom from Fear, Freedom of Expression and Freedom of Religion;

We build a sense of community and spiritual purpose which uplifts and inspires our members to Contribute Their Utmost To Universal Welfare.

The Light of Egypt By Thomas H. Burgoyne

Two Volume Set

This is an important book for any earnest student of the occult sciences. Burgoyne was a member of the Hermetic Brotherhood of Luxor, the precursor to The Brotherhood of Light, which became a public organization incorporated as The Church of Light in 1932. First published in 1900, this work was, in part, a response to H. P. Blavatsky's "Isis Unveiled" in which she introduces western occultism to the Hindu concepts of karma and reincarnation, published in 1877.

The Light of Egypt is one of the first books to fully present the hermetic (occult) sciences that formed the basis of The Brotherhood of Light. This book is an occult library in itself, a textbook of esoteric knowledge, setting forth the ancient "Wisdom Religion" as taught by the adepts of hermetic philosophy and science.

Volume I includes chapters on the science of the soul, the mysteries of sex, karma and reincarnation, mediumship, the sacred cycles known as La Clef Hermetique, astrology and alchemy.

Volume II covers astrology, astro-theology, astro-mythology, alchemy, talismans, ceremonial magic, The Tablets of Aeth and the Mysteries of Eros.

The Brotherhood of Light Egyptian Tarot Cards

Tarot cards are a system of symbolical pictograph writing through which Egyptian initiates conveyed spiritual ideas derived from a still more ancient past. These cards indicate the corresponding astrological symbolism and numerological symbolism associated with the Roman, Hebrew, and Egyptian alphabets.

These new exquisite full-color tarot cards are a system of symbolical pictograph through which Egyptian initiates conveyed spiritual ideas derived from a still more ancient past. As astrology is the Golden Key and the tarot is the Silver Key, this is the only deck that correctly indicates the astrological correspondence on each card and the numerological symbolism associated with the Roman, Hebrew, and Egyptian alphabets.

The deck contains a booklet outlining the history of the Egyptian tarot deck, descriptions of the cards and instructions for use including various spreads.

Studying the art of weather predicting using astrological methods is a valuable tool particularly useful for those involved in agriculture, aviation, travel or planning events. Course XIX Organic Alchemy

All forms of life come under one uniform and universal law of soul progression. Human beings differ from species of animals and plants only by degree of evolution. All forms of life encounter the problem of securing adequate nutrition, securing protection from enemies and the environment, finding a suitable mate, and providing for the needs of the offspring. This course instructs how pleasure and pain are not rewards or punishment by God but merely Nature's way of informing any life form whether it is successful in adapting itself to its environment.
